

FEW DAYS LEFT FOR CONTESTS

Senatorial Fight Overshadows All But The Congressional Contests In State.

PERSONAL CAMPAIGNS BEING MADE

Stephenson Began His Whirlwind Finish Of His Campaign—What Is Being Talked Of On Lt. Governor-ship Contest.

Milwaukee, Aug. 22.—As the days before the primary narrow down to a trifle over a week the work of the candidates for senatorial honors is becoming well known. All of them are now doing personal work among the voters and the campaign has taken a new appearance.

With the advent of Senator Stephenson into the field of personal activity the list has been completed. Mr. Stephenson began his campaign with speaking activity in all parts of the state. Cook and Hutton followed his lead and their workers visited every portion of the state.

Yesterday all doubt as to where William D. Connor stands in the present senatorial contest was removed today when the Marshfield News, which is his paper, came out editorially in advocacy of the nomination of S. A. Cook for the United States senate. This support of Mr. Cook by Mr. Connor came without solicitation from the Cook leaders, although of course they are pleased with his endorsement of Mr. Cook's candidacy. It is said that Mr. Connor made his decision to support Mr. Cook with his paper after discovering there was a very decided sentiment in Wood County for the nomination of Mr. Cook.

How much affect this will have on the state at large is not known. It is thought little as it has been known for some time past that Mr. Connor's avowed support of the Stephenson managers has been rebuffed and that he would probably turn to some other candidate. With both Hutton and McGovern claiming LaFollette's support and LaFollette's antagonism to Connor's, Cook was the only one he could turn to with safety.

Stephenson's reception in Rock County has been so gratifying to the junior senator that he has begun arrangements for continuing his trips throughout the state to every city of importance. In this he will have to make long jumps and see some hard work but his vitality is that of a man of sixty and his experience is a wealth and he will be able to stand the campaigning that would wear out many a younger man.

Hutton and McGovern appear to be dividing their strength. The claim made by both that LaFollette is behind them had its effect early in the campaign of widening the break between the two men and making a reconciliation between their followers impossible. Both are fighting hard but neither seem to be gaining much.

Cook on the other hand is gaining ground if his managers can be relied on. He is drawing from both Hutton and McGovern and his plan to the old soldiers is having its effect. However of the four Stephenson seems to be most desired and he will be able to stand the campaigning that would wear out many a younger man.

In the state fight the Strange-Trotman contest is the only one that is being seriously watched. With Strange nominated the LaFollette faction regardless of the senatorial difference the bench they may have made will have a rallying point. If Trotman is nominated and Stephenson named the radical republicans have no rallying cry for the next campaign. They are split and divided. Hence the anxiety of both managers to secure the coveted nomination for their candidate.

Trotman is a German and will draw largely from that vote. His announcement came when the field was open and with the apparent consent of the republicans at large after the office had been begging after Connor's refusal to take it. He began his campaign in a straight forward manner and his friends were surprised by the strange announcement at the eleventh hour.

Then came the congressional fight. In the first district Thomas S. Nolan appears to be giving Congressman Cooper a most decided scare and with great hopes of defeating the man who voted against the administration measure for the relief of the currency problem, the Vreeland-Aldrich bill, being one of fifteen republican congressmen to do so. Nolan's campaign has been a clean one and he has found many earnest workers in former strong Cooper men in every county in his district. In the second district Thomas Nelson and C. H. Russell, have a hard fought battle to be decided at the primaries. Nelson also was against the currency measure and is being bitterly fought by former constituents. Elected to succeed the late Henry C. Adams he was re-elected to a full term and now seeks a second term. His nomination is in doubt according to political forecasters.

In the third a remarkable situation exists. With three republicans in the field, Attorney Peterson, O. Maloney and A. W. Kemp, seeking the nomination to succeed congressman Murphy, all of them strong radicals. It is said that the LaFollette influence is being withheld and really given to aid Murphy in re-election.

In the fourth district the Stafford-Cochran fight is sensational. Cochran is making a hard campaign to defeat the present congressman and is wiser for his struggle against him years ago. It is a speaking campaign almost entirely.

In the fifth the contest is little or nothing and in the seventh there is no opposition, the winner being true Davidson in the eighth and Korus in the tenth. These four districts really mean nothing and there is little hope of ousting Webster, democrat in the sixth.

However the ninth comes a bitter battle royal between Kuesterman and Minor. Two years ago Kuesterman defeated Minor for nomination and this year Minor is turning the tables on his former friend and by good hard work is winning votes in the strong republican district where nomination means election.

In the eleventh comes the contest of them all. Here Jonathan is fighting for his life with Leontow as his opponent. It is a bitter personal battle with Leontow in the advantage owing to his early campaigning and his methods.

CELEBRATE BATTLE ANNIVERSARY TODAY

Forty Ridgely Attacked by the Indians Forty Six Years Ago Today.
(SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.)
New Ulm, Minn., Aug. 22.—The people of New Ulm, Fairfax and Redwood Falls united today in a homecoming celebration and reunion in commemoration of the memorable attack on Fort Ridgely by the Indians, which occurred forty-six years ago today. The defense of Fort Ridgely was one of the most heroic episodes in Indian wars in the northwest. The fort was set on fire by the Indians several times, but the defenders under a rain of shot, extinguished the blaze in each instance and succeeded in holding the fort against the attacking party.

POLITICAL CONTEST IN SOUTH CAROLINA

Democratic Primaries Will Be Held Next Tuesday to Select Nominees.
(SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.)
Columbia, S. C., Aug. 22.—The political contest which has kept South Carolina in a stirred up condition for several months past came to a practical close today. Next Tuesday the democratic voters will express their preference in a state-wide primary for candidates for United States senator, governor and other state officers and members of congress. Selection in the primary will be equivalent to election.

Public interest is confined almost wholly to the contests for senator and governor. For senator the candidates are as follows: ex-governor John Gary Evans, Spartanburg; E. Goodwyn Rhett, Charleston; George Johnston, Newberry; E. D. Smith, Florence; John P. Grace, Charleston; W. W. Lumpkin, Richmond; and O. H. Martin, Milledgeville.

Governor Martin P. Ansel is a candidate for re-nomination. He is opposed by State Senator Cole L. Weaver of Newberry. Mr. Ansel was always a stalwart state dispensary supporter, and when that institution was abolished he came out on an extended local option platform.

Governor Ansel, on the other hand, stands on a platform this year declaring for restricted local option, favoring a law making the entire state prohibition with the right to counties to exempt themselves by majority vote and sell whiskey through county dispensaries. The stand taken by Governor Ansel seems to be generally acceptable to the prohibitionists and it is generally believed that the majority favoring prohibition will support the governor in next week's primary.

The present lieutenant-governor, attorney-general, secretary of state and state treasurer will be re-nominated without opposition. Contests are on for state superintendent of public instruction, railroad commissioner and comptroller general. All of the present members of congress are candidates for another term. Representative James O. Patterson of the Second district, Wyatt Aiken in the Third district, D. E. Finley in the Fifth and J. Edward McIlhenny in the Sixth have contests on their hands. The others will be returned without opposition.

NEW ENGLISH PATENT LAW WILL AFFECT AMERICANS

Requires Foreigners To Manufacture on British Soil To Get English Patent.

(SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.)
London, Aug. 22.—According to an estimate of Sir Alfred Jones, Great Britain will benefit to the extent of $125,000,000 by the working of the new Patents Act, which is to become fully operative next week. The new law stipulates that foreigners who may obtain British patents must manufacture the patented goods on British soil. On and after next Friday anyone, on application to the Comptroller of Patents, may cause to be revoked any patent granted four years or more ago in this country to any foreigner who manufactures the goods in question "exclusively or mainly" outside the United Kingdom. As American and German manufacturers are doing a large business in England, they stand to be forced to expend millions of dollars in the construction of plants here as provided by the new act. Last year England granted 2,608 patents to Germany and 2,792 to the United States. Over 20,000 British patents have been granted within the past three years to foreigners. Not one of these patents has hitherto been adequately "worked" in the United Kingdom.

POLITICAL EVENTS CENTER OF INTEREST NEXT WEEK

Bryan Will Deliver Several Important Addresses—Fleet In Australia.

(SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.)
Washington, D. C., Aug. 22.—Politics will claim the lion's share of attention of American newspaper readers the coming week, though accounts of the political doings will not be able to monopolize all of the space on first pages. National events abroad will claim attention. The celebration of the American battle ship day in Australia will be of interest, and there also will be a number of conventions, sporting events and other happenings worthy of attention.

William J. Bryan will occupy the center of the political stage. Several of the most important speeches that he has scheduled for the campaign will be delivered during the week. Leaving Chicago Monday, Mr. Bryan will go to Indianapolis to attend the notification of his running mate, Mr. Kern, which is to take place Tuesday. On this occasion Mr. Bryan will deliver his speech on trusts. His next speech will be delivered at Toledo on Thursday and will deal with the question of the quantity of bank deposits. After a day or two at his home in Fairview the democratic campaign will again take to the road, being slated for several speaking engagements in Mitchell, Sioux Falls and other points in the northwest.

Judge Taft has scheduled no public engagements for the week, though it is probable that he will deliver one or more impromptu addresses to delegations of visitors who may call upon him. Republican interest will be confined more or less to the developments in the New York state campaign, the fight between the Hughes and anti-Hughes forces and the efforts to draw President Roosevelt into the contest.

In South Carolina Tuesday a democratic primary will be held for the nomination of candidates for United States senator, state officers, members of congress and minor officials. The contest for senator and governor have been extremely spirited and the result is awaited with much interest throughout a large section of the south.

Other political events of the week that will attract more or less attention will be the public speaking of the presidential candidates on the prohibition and independence controversy, the republican state convention in North Carolina to name a state ticket, and a republican state convention in Georgia.

Knoxville, Tenn., Aug. 22.—National Committee on Mount Cashel announced Bryan will speak at Nashville, Sept. 11.

STOCK MARKET TOOK AN EXCITING STAND

Sales Reach An Enormous Figure For The Entire Month In New York.
(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.)
New York, Aug. 22.—Today's stock market was the most exciting in the month's sale of stocks. Two hours trading reached 1,001,300 and an effort was made to "bear" the market by surprise and force them to buy the large outstanding contracts on the rising market. This was successful for a while, but the crowd taking wind up the gains and the close was feverish and unsettled.

AN OVATION IS GIVEN SENATOR

JUNIOR WISCONSIN SENATOR GREETED MANY HUNDREDS HERE LAST NIGHT.

STEPHENSON VISIT ENJOYED

Former Governor Hoard Gave an Excellent Little Talk to the Crowd at Myers Hotel.

Mr. Isaac Stephenson came, saw and conquered. His reception at the Hotel Myers last evening was an ovation to the man who represents the state of Wisconsin in the United States Senate.
Arriving at noon yesterday Senator Stephenson overcame his objections to riding in an automobile and went to Hotel N. L. Carter's headquarters. A second car, Arthur Harts' with the remainder of the party acted as pathfinders for the Senatorial party.
En route they passed the Sinclair farm, six miles southeast of Janesville. Sixty-two years ago last May Mr. Stephenson, then a boy of 17, broke 130 acres of this tract and helped plant 400 acres of wheat. "When, there," called out "Uncle Ike" when the driver of the auto attempted to pass the old farm. "Well go on here for a few minutes. This is section 25."

Mr. Mount, who as a tobacco buyer has traveled to every farm in Rock county, suggested that Mr. Stephenson was mixed up on the section, but he insisted he was right and the auto drove in. E. F. Funk, the present owner of the farm, confirmed Mr. Stephenson's statement. Then everybody had a drink at the Stephenson well. "This well is ninety-five feet deep," said "Uncle Ike." "Forty-five feet of it is through dirt and fifty feet through a ledge," said Mr. Funk. "I guess that's right," replied Mr. Stephenson, "for I dug it in 1845 and did not finish it for two years." This was Mr. Stephenson's first visit to the old farm since 1849. When the Stephenson party reached Beloit they went to the Hilton hotel where they were met by a reception committee consisting of W. O. Hanson, W. H. Grinnell, R. L. Dowd, E. F. Hanson, M. Northrup, H. Cleophas, O. B. Osborne, and W. S. Perigo. Probably 200 republicans called. The hotel lobby became so crowded that the Marquette man went to the sidewalk and the reception was continued there for an hour or more.
Then came the visit to the Parkbank-Morse and Berlin factories. Here Senator Stephenson met personally fully twenty-two hundred men and strange to say found many from Marquette, some of whom had worked for his companies there in former years.

The return trip to Janesville was taken and the party had dinner at the Myers. Mayor Heddles and P. J. Mount being with the party. Then came the reception in the hotel of the hotel. The hotel had already begun to play and several hundred men were waiting in the office proper and on the steps outside.
Senator Stephenson had a warm handshake for all and a kind word to say to many who recalled past days. He walked about the office being introduced to this man and that man and still had time to chat with many old soldiers who were present and old settlers who had come to Rock county about the time Stephenson did or just a little later.

Fully four hundred passed through the office and shook hands with the Senator, being introduced by Mayor Heddles, Grant Fisher, E. J. Mount, Edward Parker, W. G. Wheeler, N. L. Curle and others of the reception committee.
At nine o'clock former Governor Hoard arrived. N. L. Curle, J. H. Puelcher of Milwaukee, Edward Parker and Chas. Putnam acting as a reception committee to meet him at the train in Mr. Curle's auto. Mr. Hoard was delayed in not joining the party earlier by the serious illness of his son, but reported him much improved.

The lobby of the hotel was well filled when Ogden H. Pethers rapped for order and introduced ex-Gov. Hoard, who said he was glad to meet such an assemblage "gathered to express sympathy and support of the candidacy of Uncle Ike." (Cheers.)
"I feel a very warm interest in this matter myself," he continued, "and I am glad that Rock county responds to the needs of the hour as it does. I believe firmly in the pluck and power of his candidacy. Wisconsin needs a man who can get hold of the men in that senate and do something for Wisconsin."
"La Follette is the point of the plow—the hardest and most unyielding part of the plow, which must encounter unyielding obstacles, but the moldboard must turn the furrow. The aggressiveness, the clear-cut unyielding qualities of our senior senator, for whom I have fought so long, are needed in the senate; but so, too,

The Secret Out

"Direct from the Ostich Farm to You" is a modern method of selling Plumes direct to the wearer.

The announcements which have been appearing in our columns lately were advertisements intended to attract attention to the one which appears to-day. It seems that a company operates under the plan of cutting out all middleman's profits by adopting a new plan and selling Ostich Plumes "Direct from the Ostich Farm to You."
The concern conducts distributing points at various metropolitan cities and the district covered by the Milwaukee Depot proposes to have an exhibit in our town and display a big line of Ostich Plumes and throwing the whole open for public inspection for our citizens.
According to a statement of the manager in charge of this exhibit some interesting illustrations will be made proving the efficacy of this plan of selling. The exhibit is free to all and visitors are more than welcome.

While the object is to show the scope of the line the concern handles, purchases may also be made and a particularly attractive bargain number is the Plume, in all colors, which is offered at One Dollar.

is the genial and captivating good nature of Uncle Ike, but then together and they make a team such as no other state can match.

"The industry of Wisconsin has shown itself in a hundred different ways. I want to see in the senate a man who will express that energy and that power. Jefferson will join with Rock county to put Ike Stephenson back in the senate. You don't want to swap horses crossing a stream. The republicans of Rock county are of like opinion with you." (Hearty cheers.)

While it had been a trying day for the Senator to sit about the lobby of the hotel for two hours after the crowd had departed, talking over old times with friends. He was full of stories and during the entire evening had little knots of visitors standing around him listening to his early experiences both in Rock county and Marquette.
One remarkable feature of the demonstration was that the man who greeted the Senator were all of the voting class. They came because they wanted to honor their United States Senator and because they approved of his re-election.

There were several from Edgerton, Janesville and Milton present and many drove in from the country to be present. It was one of the most spontaneous gatherings that has been held in Janesville for many years and represented a united republican party free from any factionalism.
Senator Stephenson, Mr. Van Cleave, Mr. Puelcher, Thomas Brahany and Mr. Kelley left this morning at eight-thirty for Milwaukee. The Senator expressed himself as most pleased with the visit and takes back with him some apples picked up on the old Sinclair farm where he worked sixty-two years ago. He expects to continue his campaigning during next week, visiting many of the larger cities of the state.

It will be the largest gathering ever seen or heard of in Winnebago County. There will be reunions, refreshments of old memories, hearty handshakes, and a general walking up of both old and young, including the babies.

Things to remember. The date, from sun-up to sun-down, August 28th, 1908, at Ho-No-Ne-Gah Park.
The Music. The Rockford Military Band. Several bands of martial music. Add Lang Syne by the congregation.

The above only in part of that which is scheduled for the day. All in all, it will be a "red-letter day," a day to be remembered and talked about when other days are forgotten and gone.
Take Note: Cancel all dates conflicting with this, Aug. 28th, 1908.

ROYCROFT PHILOSOPHY

By FRA ELBERTUS

WRITTEN IN A SINCERE AND KINDLY DESIRE TO HELP THE YOUNG WHO DO NOT KNOW, AND THE OLDER ONES WHO SOMETIMES FORGET.

his hold until he falls into the yeasty deep. There is no one to blame but himself yet probably you will have hard work to make him understand this little point. When a man is told to do a certain thing, and then leaps to his lips or even to his heart, the formula, "I wasn't hired to do that," he is standing upon a greased plank that inclines toward the sea. When the plank is tilted to a proper angle, he goes to Davy Jones' locker, and nobody tilts the fatal plank but the man himself. And the way the plank is tilted is this: the man takes more interest in passing craft and what is going on on land, than in doing his work on board ship. So I repeat: no man employed by a successful concern was ever discharged. Those who fall overboard, get on the greased plank and then give it a tilt to starboard.
If you are on a greased plank, you better get off from it, and quickly too.
Loyalty is the thing!

DESTROY THE CAUSE.

You Cannot Cure Dandruff Without Destroying the Cause of It.

Many people wash their scalps Saturday night or Sunday to try to keep the dandruff down for the week, but on Monday night the scalp has begun to itch, and Tuesday morning will find a good supply of dandruff when the hair is brushed. There is but one real scientific way of curing dandruff; and that is to kill the germ that causes it, and falling hair, and finally baldness. There is only one preparation that will destroy the germ, and that is Newbro's Herculoid. It is an entirely new discovery and the only hair preparation that is based on the new scientific principle. In addition Herculoid is a very refreshing hair dressing for regular toilet use. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c, in stamps for sample to The Herculoid Co., Detroit, Mich.

Two sizes, 50 cents and $1.00.

SEWER WORK WILL COMMENCE TODAY

Contractors Will Begin Construction of $75,000 Sewers Today.

Today and Monday the work on the first sewer contracts for the city will be commenced by the contractors to whom the contracts have been awarded. The People's Construction company of Davenport, Iowa, began work this morning. They have several pieces of machinery here for the preliminary work. The siphon crossing the river at Ravine street and the outlet bulkhead just south of the old cotton mill at Monterey will be constructed by this company. They are anxious to begin work while the water is low as they will need to pump less out.

Ryan and Finley, the local firm, who were given the contract for the work in sewer districts 3, 5, 6, 11 and 16, will begin work in a day or so, and the Chicago Drainage & Construction company which will build the sewers in districts 14 and 15 will commence operations the first of next week.

The question of the kind of pipe to be used has not as yet been decided. The choice of material is a matter of the whole on Monday night to discuss this question but no call has been issued for a special meeting.

While local labor will be used it will be necessary to import a number of men in order to have enough.

A man of undoubted courage, a son of Rock county, sturdy, honest and intelligent. Of college education, a bright mind, well trained, capable in every way to fill the office of sheriff.

Your confidence will not be misplaced if you vote for

E. H. RANSOM.

For County Treasurer

In announcing myself as a candidate for the republican nomination for county treasurer for Rock county at the primaries, Sept. 1st, 1908, will say that I was born in Rock county in 1862; have lived on a farm in the Town of Janesville for the past 34 years; have conducted my own business successfully, and feel competent to fulfill the duties pertaining to this office if nominated and elected, and respectfully ask for the support of the voters of Rock county.

A. M. CHURCH,
Town of Janesville.

REPUBLICAN
CANDIDATE
FOR STATE
SENATOR
FROM ROCK
COUNTY,

JOHN M.
WHITEHEAD,
JANESVILLE

Mr. Hemingway asks the support of the voters of Rock County on September 1st because he wants the office of DISTRICT ATTORNEY; he wants the office because it furnishes valuable opportunities for practice in his chosen profession. Mr. Hemingway is a graduate of the University of Wisconsin Law School and is admitted to practice in all United States and State courts in Wisconsin; he honestly believes he can serve the people of Rock County as faithfully and efficiently as District Attorney as he has the First District as School Superintendent, and all he asks of the voters is that they investigate the official record and reputation of his opponent and himself and choose the man they feel sure will be the best man for the place.

VOTE FOR

JOHN L. FISHER FOR RENOMINATION FOR DISTRICT ATTORNEY

36 of the 39 members of the Rock County Board of Supervisors have endorsed John L. Fisher's administration as "ECONOMICAL and SUCCESSFUL."

The Supervisors audit and direct the payment of all County bills. They know whether a County officer is economical or extravagant.

John L. Fisher was admitted to practice law in 1889. He was appointed District Attorney by Governor James O. Davidson on February 1, 1900, and was elected District Attorney in 1905. His experience will save money for the tax-payers of Rock County.

If in doubt who to vote for, ask your Supervisor or any practicing attorney in Rock County.

Read Below What the Supervisors Say:

TO THE VOTERS OF ROCK COUNTY:

We, the undersigned qualified electors for Rock County hereby endorse the candidacy of John L. Fisher for renomination to the office of District Attorney for Rock County. We are familiar with Mr. Fisher's work and we believe that his record as District Attorney entitles him to renomination. He has the benefit of three years' experience in performing the duties of the office and his administration has been economical and successful.

We believe that it would be unwise for Rock County to elect a man to the important office of District Attorney who has had no experience as a practicing attorney in the trial of either civil or criminal cases. For this reason we endorse John L. Fisher.

FORTY YEARS AGO

Janesville Daily Gazette, August 22, 1868.—Alleged Stealing—Hannah Moran was before the court this morning, charged with stealing $53 from John C. Crocker. She was held to bail to appear in the circuit court in $300.

Dying—Quite a number of trees in the park, both those which are natives and some of those which have been planted, are having out the flag of distress, and many of them are evidently dying. This indicates that the trees have been properly mulched. It is a great pity that after trees have gotten so good a start they should not receive attention enough to save them.

Continuation of Trial.—The Union Machine arrived last night and the trial for superiority is still in progress as we go to press. The merits of the two engines have been pretty thoroughly discussed and opinion seems to favor the steam engine which is today on trial, but with what correctness remains to be decided by the verdict of the committee to whom the choice of engines has been referred.

Broken Railing.—Among the many visible signs of decay on the structure which spans the river at Milwaukee street, is the falling away of a portion of the railing on the east end, and the danger of a further breaking away in the case of the sudden rush of a crowd, which might happen in a moment of excitement—an event liable to occur in one of the most crowded localities of the city, and which would doubtless be productive of fatal results.

Accident.—An accident of rather a serious nature occurred in the town of Rock on the farm owned by Mr. Shields to a young man named Henry Kayler. He was unloading a barrel of wheat from a wagon with a spring horse fork, and on bearing the bottom of the load thrust in his fork to remove what was left, and in doing so one of the tines passed through an opening in the bottom of the wagon box, which not being observed the horse was started, lifting box, man and grain from the wagon and throwing Mr. Kayler upon the fork, one of the tines penetrating his bowels. Dr. Whiting of this city was called, and the sufferer is now comparatively comfortable.

A Mysterious Mystery

Is this a Deep Laid Plot by a Schemer, or a Kindly Tip by a Friend?

Someone seems to be putting up some sort of a new proposition to our other wise peaceful citizens which may throw people into a state of inquietude. The announcements in bold type which both "exclaim" and "question" seem to put but a plan of some sort but who can tell what is meant?

Something is said about "Direct from the Outside Farm to You," but who knows anything more about it after that? Fact is the plot thickens through the mention of the quoted phrase. Wonder what it really means.

as her friends would like. Miss Edith Davidson came up from Chicago Thursday for a visit with her parents.

A baby girl has arrived to gladden the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Barlow.

Mrs. J. S. Playter is entertaining her daughter, Mrs. Emma of Albana.

Irene Olin of Chicago had the misfortune to break one of the bones in her wrist while visiting here. She will return home this week and Edith Barlow will accompany her.

There will be no church services nor Sunday school for the next two Sundays, the 22nd and 23rd. The pastor, Rev. Davidson, is taking his vacation at this time.

Some of the Myrtle Workers are planning to attend the Myrtle picnic at York's Park on Saturday, the 29th. Come in with your basket and have a good time.

JUDGE GROSSCUP

CALLED UNFAIR

ATTACKED IN PETITION FOR OIL
CASE REHEARING.

FILED FOR GOVERNMENT

Document Ascertains the Federal Court of Appeals Was Unjust to Judge Landis and Mis-
stated the Facts.

Chicago, Aug. 22.—The government
Friday filed its petition for a rehearing of the appeal of the Standard Oil Company of Indiana in the federal appellate court—the document charging Judges Grosscup, Seaman and Baker of the United States circuit court of appeals with injustice to Judge Landis and accusing them of misstatement
of the latter's position and the facts
on record in the case. The petition, containing 5,000 words, was filed for the government by Chief Clerk William A. Small of District Attorney Slin's office. John S. Miller and his associate lawyers representing the oil company have 20 days in which to file an answer, and the petition may be considered by the appellate judges,
who reversed Judge Landis' $29,240, 000 fine. They may reconsider their decision or they may ignore the government's petition without hearing any further arguments.

Evidence Not Admitted.

The government sets forth in its petition that the court of appeals said
the trial judge (Landis) had refused to admit evidence which showed that the Standard Oil Company did not know the law of the state of Indiana, and that the fact is, and the records so show, that all evidence tending to show that the government must show beyond a reasonable doubt that the shipper knew what the law of published and filed into was.

Say Ruling and Law Vary.

Attorneys for the government contend that such a ruling is contrary to the wording of the Illinois act.

The government bases its petition for an appeal almost wholly upon the assertion that not only did the court of appeals misstate the records which show which evidence was admitted,
but that misstatement was placed upon the construction of the statute
by Judge Landis. It also contends that examination of the record will show that the court did not rule out the testimony tending to show the want of knowledge, but that all proper evidence was admitted and placed before the jury.

Again Falls to Swim Channel.

Dover, England, Aug. 22.—W. W.
Hargess on Friday made his sixth in-official attempt to swim the English channel. He was taken out of the water at 11:15 o'clock at night, having swum for 22 hours and 45 minutes, a new record for remaining in the water.

Joy Kills Gen. Miller's Sister.

come by the excitement and joy of meeting her brother, Gen. Nelson A.
Miller, whom she had not seen for a number of years, Mrs. Mary Jane Merriam, 77 years of age, died of heart disease at her home on Winter street.

CALLS OFF INDIANA STRIKE.

President Lewis Tells All Miners to Return to Work.

Indianapolis, Ind., Aug. 22.—Having been defied by the Indiana state executive board of the organization, President T. L. Lewis of the United Mine Workers Friday afternoon issued from headquarters a letter advising all miners now on strike in Indiana to return to work immediately.

It now rests with the miners to obey the terms of President Lewis' or suffer the revocation of their charters.
The words of the president
are not harsh, but they carry an import of determination and authority.
In his letter President Lewis intimates
that the case at the Hudson mine, which started the strike, is not meritorious.

Ohio Family Is Poisoned.

Columbus, O., Aug. 22.—Walter Starkey, his wife and two children of Groveport, near this city, were nec-essentially poisoned Friday and one child is dead and the parents and the other child are reported to be dying. The poisoning was due to a mistake said to have been made by Mrs. Starkey in mixing arsenic with dough while making popovers.

Dr. A. E. McBeth Dies.

Battle Creek, Mich., Aug. 22.—Dr.
A. E. McBeth, prominent Republican politician, president of the common wealth and a veterinary surgeon of state-wide reputation, died suddenly Friday night from the effects of an apoplectic stroke suffered two days ago.

show ignorance on the part of the Standard Oil Company was admitted for the consideration of the jury," says
the government's appeal. Continuing, it sets forth that if the rule of the appellate court for the admission of evidence regarding the ignorance of the Standard Oil Company was followed,
it would tend to nullify the Interstate commerce act, so far as shippers are concerned.

Based on Bogardus' Testimony.

The reversal of Judge Landis' decision was based largely on the testimony of Bogardus, traffic manager of the oil company. The witness testified to a conversation with Hollands,
a rate clerk of the Chicago & Alton,
who told him that the rate had been fixed. The government attorneys disproved this statement. Judge Landis then ruled that ignorance on the part of a shipper could not be interposed as a defense and that the lack of knowledge was entirely due to carelessness. The court of appeals lays down the rule in consequence with the face to face with his son that he realized who it was, not until then that he felt the full force of shame, ignominy, longing for himself.

To started back with an involuntary cough and would have slunk away had not Graydon called out to him—called out in a voice full of pain and misery.
"The convict's face was ashen and his jaw hung loose with the paralysis of dismay. His heart dropped like a chunk of ice; his feet were as leaden weights.
A look of utter despair came into his hard eyes as he slowly advanced to the bars.

"My God, Graydon, why did you come? Why did you come here?" he muttered. Then he caught sight of Jane and Elias Droom. His eyes dropped, and his fingers twitched. To save his life he could not have kept his lower lip from trembling nor the burning tears from his eyes. His humiliation was complete.

A involuntary grin was on Droom's face. His staring blue eyes looked with a great joy upon the shamed, beaten man in the stripes. The one thing that he had longed for and cherished had come to pass. He had lived to see James Hargess utterly destroyed
even in his own eyes.

"Father, I can't believe it. I can't tell you how it hurts me. I would willingly take your place if it were possible.
Forgive me for deserting you," Graydon was saying incoherently when his father lifted his face suddenly, a fierce, horrible look of understanding in the eyes that flashed upon Elias Droom.
Even as he clasped his son's hand in the bitterness of small joy his lips
curled into a snarl of fury. Droom's eyes shifted instantly, his uneasy gaze directing itself, as usual, above the head of his victim.

"You did this, curse you!" came from the convict's lips. "And this girl too! Good God, you knew I would rather have died than to meet Graydon
as I am now. You knew it, and you brought him here. I hope you will rot for this, Elias Droom. She comes here, too, to gloat, to rejoice, to see how I look before my son in prison stripes!"
He went on violently for a long stretch,
ending with a sob of rage. "I suppose you are satisfied," he said hoarsely to Droom.

Graydon and Jane looked on in surprise and distress. Droom's gaze did not avert nor his expression change.

"Father, didn't you expect me to come?" asked Graydon. "Don't you want to see me?"

"Not here. Why should I have tried to keep you from returning to this country? God knows how I hoped and prayed that you'd not see me here.
Elias Droom knew it. That's why he brought you here. Don't lie to me, Droom. I know it!"

"What could you expect?" mumbled Droom. "Down in your heart you wanted to see him. I've done you a kindness."

"For which I'll repay you some day," cried the prisoner, a steady look in his eyes. "Now go away, all of you! I'm through with you. You've seen me.
The girl is satisfied. Go!"

"Nonsense, father," cried Graydon, visibly distressed by his father's anguish. "Elias said that you wanted to see us. Jane did not come out of curiosity. She is here to seek justice of
you. She's not seeking vengeance."

"I'll talk to you alone," said the prisoner shortly. "Send her away.
I've nothing to say to her or Droom."
Jane turned and walked swiftly away, followed by Droom, who rubbed his long fingers together and tried to look sympathetic. The interview that ensued between father and son was never to be forgotten by either. Graydon heard his father's bitter story in new silence; heard him curse deeply and vindictively; heard all this and marveled at the new and heretofore
unexposed side of his nature.

There was something pathetic in the haggard face and the expressions of impotent rage. His heart softened when his father bared his shame to him and cried out against the fate
which had brought them together on this day.

"It doesn't matter, father," said Graydon hoarsely. "I deserted you, and I'm sorry. No matter what you've done to bring you here, I'm glad I've come to see you. I don't blame Elias.

For awhile I'm afraid I rather held out against coming. Now I am glad for my own sake. I won't desert you now. I am going to work for a pardon
if your appeal does not go through."

"Don't—I won't have it!" exclaimed
the other. "I'm going to stay it out.
It will give me time to forget, so that I can be a better man. If they let me out now I'd do something I'd always regret. I want to serve my time and start all over again. Don't worry about me. I won't hamper you. I'll go away—abroad, as Herbert suggested. His advice was good, after all. Understand, Graydon, I do not want parole or pardon. You must not undertake it. I am guilty and ought to be punished the same as the other fellows in here. Don't shudder. It's true. I'm no better than they."

To be continued.

CHAPTER XXIX.

HE CLEGG was not long
in convincing Graydon
that his proposition to him was sincere and not the outgrowth of sentiment. A dozen men in the office greeted Graydon with a warmth that had an uplifting effect.
He went away with a heart lighter
than he had once imagined it could ever be again. In two weeks he was to be in absolute control of the New York branch. He assured the firm that his physical condition was such that he could go to work at once if necessary.

As he listened to the Annex interviews again entered into his soul.
The newspapers had heralded his return and had hinted broadly at remarkable developments in connection with Miss Cable, "who is at the Annex with Mr. and Mrs. Cable." There were brief references to the causes which sent both of them to the Philippines, and that was all.

Without hesitation he came to the point by asking if she knew what had befallen his father. Jane had heard the news the night before. He thereupon put the whole situation before her just as it had been suggested in Droom's ironical remark. It was not until after the question had been posed upon by Mr. and Mrs. Cable that he reluctantly consented to visit Graydon's father solely for the purpose of gleaning what information she could regarding her parentage.

They left the next day with Elias Droom, depressed, nervous, dreading the hour about of them. Neither was in the mood to respond to the eager, excited remarks of the old clerk. The short railroad trip was one never to be forgotten; impressions were left in their lives that could not be effaced.

James Hargess, shorn and striped,
was not expecting visitors. He was surprised and angry when he was told that visitors were waiting to see him.
For four weeks he had labored elaborately and surely in the shoe factory of the great prison, a hauler and carrier. His tall figure was bent with unusual toll,
his hands were worn and his heart was full of the cancer of rebellion. Already in that short time his face had taken on the look of the convict. All the viciousness in his nature had gone to his face and settled there. He had the sullen, dogged, patient look of the man who has a number, but no name.

The once-dignified, aggressive walk had degenerated into a slouch. He shuffled as he came to the bars where he was to meet his first visitors. He was not pleased, but he was curious.
Down in his heart he found a hope that his attorney had come with good news. It was not until he was almost

"Who sent me the draft for five hundred?"

"I did, Graydon. Forgive me. It was just a loan, you know. I thought you'd need something."

"I haven't touched it. Elias. Here it is. Thank you. No, I won't accept it."

"I'm sorry," muttered the old man,
taking the slip of paper.

Graydon resumed his seat near the window and watched Droom with interest.

"God!" burst from the wretched son.
lenden eyes as he turned suddenly to resume charge of the packing. "You'll soon be through," he said shortly.

For an hour the work went on, and then Droom dismissed the workers with their pay. The storage van men were there to carry the boxes away.
Graydon sat still and saw the offices deserted. Secondhand dealers hurried off with the furniture, the pictures and the rugs. An expressman came in for the things that belonged to Elias Droom.

"There," said the clerk, tossing the umbrella into a corner. "It's finished.
There's nothing left to do but remove ourselves."

WHAT WILL HE DO?

This Man of Experience and Responsibility

First. He counts the weeks between this date and October 1st and finds them surprisingly few!

Second. He observes conditions. His education having been gained from the School of Hard Knox, has taught him that presidential years are generally uncertain and when following a panic are doubly so.

Third. He knows that within six weeks he will start his stove or furnace, and the question arises, how to get the best results with the least expenditure?

...SOLVAY...

The fuel that has stood the test, of course is his natural and wise conclusion.

SOLVAY saves 20 per cent of your fuel,

SOLVAY saves labor.

SOLVAY has no dust nor dirt.

SOLVAY burns bright and clean.

SOLVAY is one-half cheaper than wood.

SOLVAY goes as far as hard coal.

SOLVAY burns only in a stove with a grate.

EVERYBODY

Capitalist, business man, mechanic, farmer—everybody uses this excellent fuel in furnace, kitchen stove or base burner. The greatest amount of excellent fuel for the least number of dollars.

Placed in August

If you are going to buy a stove this season, buy one with a grate, for Solvay MUST have a grate.

MONROE SUFFERS AN EXODUS OF TEACHERS

Many Teachers in Its School Desire to Relinquish Their Contracts.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]

Monroe, Wis., Aug. 22.—Two more teachers of the Monroe public schools have handed in their resignations but the chances are the board of education will not accept them owing to the nearness of the date on which school will open for the year. One position in the high school faculty still remains to be filled and the board of education has been unable to find a suitable person for the place. The board members are indignant over the recent resignations of the teachers and applicants will hereafter be compelled to stand by the contract they sign and not ask to be released when offered a better position.

The Mineral Point fair has an attendance Thursday of over 10,000, the largest number of people ever on the grounds of the Iowa County Fair association.

David Stauffer, a rural mail carrier going out of town, had a narrow escape from being seriously injured northwest of the city when his horse threw itself backwards, turning the rig over and throwing the driver out.

Miss Floyd Drake, who has been here on a visit, returned to her home in Janesville.

Miss Nellie Miller, who accompanied Miss Juliet Bostwick of Janesville, to Berkeley, Calif., where they attended summer school, has returned home.

A SELECT SCHOOL

No educational work of today is more important or practical than that of qualifying young men and women as bookkeepers, stenographers, correspondents and secretaries. It therefore behooves all young people to select a school which is properly supplied with the necessary equipment, courses of study, and teachers. All schools are not alike and the young man or woman who desires to get the right kind of an education must needs INVESTIGATE. We are willing to stand or fall by the RESULTS we can show. EVERY GRADUATE HAS BEEN PLACED. EVERY TEACHER IS A SPECIALIST. No student teachers are employed. It is a school that refined, ambitious young men and women, as well as parents, would appreciate. It stands on its merits.

All our teachers have the practical OFFICE TRAINING as well as the TEACHING, EXPERIENCE and ABILITY.

AS IS THE TEACHER SO IS THE SCHOOL. We invite the most searching investigations and comparisons.
